How beautiful are your tents, O Jacob, your dwelling places, O Israel ! By your abounding love, O God, I enter Your house. With awe I worship in Your holy Temple. O God, I love the house where you dwell and the place where Your glory resides. I shall bow and kneel before God, my Maker. I am my prayer before You : may this be a time of Your favor. In Your great love, God, answer me with Your saving truth.
